

CURRENTLY RECRUITING FOR OUR 2012 CLASS

Vision New America was founded in 1996 to promote the civic participation of underrepresented groups through our public policy internship programs, educational forums and community events. We accept high school and college students who want to make a difference in their communities and are inspired to play a part in the policy-making process of local, state, and federal institutions.

Here are some of the things we provide:

- Professional Exposure
- Leadership Development
- Summer Internships
- Community Involvement
- Scholarship Opportunities
- Project Planning Experience
- An Insight Into Local/Bay Area Governments
- Professional Networking
- References for College Apps and Resumes
- Individualized Coaching
- Much, Much More
